The office of Adjutant-General latter combination would not amount to a balmes from an egg in the shape of a small annual anec of power by joining either faction. The State, judging from the majority which Garfield obappropriation for rent for a room in which to store the State arms; then, to pay some one for changes and table of the Republican parcleaning and taking care of the old maskets; and ty control its action in any respect? Four men on up, until a full-fledged Adjutant-General was hatched out. The Agricultural Department began by an annual appropriation of a couple of ousands dellars to pay for pumphlets, Ac., to in Kansas in which the Democrats amounted to encourage immigration—which was usually gob-bled up, and but little equivalent received—and then an appropriation to the State Horticultural Society, to enable it to exhibit Kansas fruits in the East. Now it is the costly Agriculture Department, which could no more be shaken off than the State Government itself. The State Historieal Society and the State Librarian erept up by the same gradual processes, and are now fixtures. se, some of these institution are a benefit to the State; but we wished to show how they crept up by slow degrees, until they have become ent fixtures. The foregoing remarks were suggested by a new scheme which will be brought before the coming Legislature, as a fresh leach to fasten itself upon the Treasury, and suck its life-blood. The proposition has been started, and is being taken up by paper after paper, to make an annulitia. The pretence is, that only a small sum is needed to provide agreement a small sum is cleet him. al appropriation for the support of the State Mineeded, to provide armories, tents, uniforms, etc. But if started, it will soon grow into a salary for the officers, pay for the men when on drill, &c. In short, the people of the State, in due course of time, will find a standing army of militia quartered upon them, to be paid out of their taxes, for exhibiting their uniforms and their valor in time of peace. There will be a new horde of excentive pimps and favorites to be paid out of the State Treasury, for doing the dirty work of their master. A regiment of militia in each County, with Colonels and Captains paid out of the State Treasury, and commissioned by the Governor, would make a soft thing for that Governor. He would have the army to run the primaries, and the State to pay for it. When war comes, militia companies are the poorest dependence in the . Volunteer soldiers, who never before drilled make the best fighters. Any standing army needed in time of peace, the General Government provides for. There is no need to increase the burden of taxes to pay a lot of militia for making displays of themselves. A loud protest went up against calling a Convention to American talent. It is on the same scale as put frame such a Constitution as the State absolutely needs, because of the expense it would incur. If the people cannot afford a Constitution that does not interfere with its own operation, they certainly cannot afford to be taxed to pay a standing army of fine-baired militia,

One Good Turn Deserves Another.

We notice that the St. Joseph Herald comes out in favor of T. Dwight Thacher for State Printer. Looking over a Kansas State document esion, we are led to the conclusion that Web, Wilder is paying Tacher for a former kindness to himself. This document is the Report of the Joint Committee on Insurance, made to the Legislature, February 24th, 1875. D. W. Wilder, then Auditor of State, in his annual Report, had made serious charges against the Insurance Department, charging it with complicity in frands upon the people of the State, and advising that the Department be abolished. A joint committee of the two Houses was raised, to vestigate the charges. They did investigate, (or pretended to investigate,) and made a report "sitting down on" Wilder very hard-no ccused him of misrepresentation, and declared that his charges had no foundation in truth. ent of Insurance, one of the very men accused by Auditor Wilder, and of course entirely disinterested in branding him a falsifier; but the report so written by this ex-officer was taken by T. evidenced by recent sales. A year ago the monthly Dwight Thacher, a member of the Committee, who was a worn to make a thorough investigation and render a true and impartial report, and edition of the November issue is 125,000. mitted to the Legislature. But the report was printed by George W. Martin, State Printer. We presume this makes the offense Martin's, and relieves Thacher of all responsibility.

cause, as is stated, the Commonwealth received $700 for publishing the official State canvass. If the Commonwealth did receive that amount, it was according to law, and the fees fived by law. There is a good deal of the Ishmaelite, or the dog in the manger, or some other extinct animal, in the Kansas press. After all the trouble they ive had in saving their fees from being rained, and all the first-class howling they have indulg ed in as to their rights, they are ready to cry out against a brother publisher who happens to strike a good job. The result will be, the public will regard the bill as extortionate, and another raid will be made upon printers' wages. A big job costs a big pile of money; and we can see no more sense or justice in crying out against a paper for receiving $700 for $700 worth of work. than in kicking because it received $1 for $1 addressed direct.
